

CPS Bulletin

The Bulletin of the Canadian Population Society

August 2016

No. 5

CONFERENCES

- Applied Demography Conference. San Antonio, TX, January 11-13, 2017. Submission deadline: August 31, 2016.
- 2017 PAA Annual Meeting. Chicago, IL, April 27-29, 2017. Submission deadline: September 29, 2016.
- The Fertility of Migrants and Minorities. Hannover, Germany, February 6-8, 2017. Submission deadline: November 28, 2016.
- 2016 CRDCN Annual Conference – “Health, Wealth, and Happiness in Canada.” Saskatoon, SK, October 31 to November 1, 2016. Keynote speaker: John F. Helliwell. See the conference website for further details.

BOOK REVIEWERS WANTED

See the below list of available books (updated as of August 16th, 2016). If you are interested in reviewing a book for Canadian Studies in Population, or have a recommended title, please feel free to contact us at the Canadian Studies in Population Office, at: cspeidr@ualberta.ca. Books currently available for review \(August 16th, 2016\)

FROM THE PRENTICE INSTITUTE

- The Prentice Institute for Global Population and Economy, University of Lethbridge, will have its first Ph.D. in Demography, Peter Kellett, graduate this fall. Peter’s thesis, “Unveiling a Socio-Demographic Portrait of Canadian Men’s Depression and Suicidal Ideation” will be published as a number of journal articles.
- Our Fall 2016 speaker line-up is taking shape. Our distinguished lecture will be by Doug Willms, FRSC, University of New Brunswick, on September 15th: “Equality, Equity, and Educational Prosperity in Alberta’s Schools.” The public talk is co-sponsored with the Centre for Child and Youth Studies, University of Lethbridge.
- The Prentice Institute will have two post-doc openings in summer/fall 2017. Applications are welcome by December 31, 2016.

EMPLOYMENT

Pitzer College, a member of the Claremont Colleges, invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position in Sociology with teaching responsibilities to include Quantitative Research Methods, Qualitative Research Methods, and Sociology of Race and Ethnicity. Additional preferred areas of expertise would also include: family, immigration, and/or crime. We particularly invite scholars who are interested in issues pertaining to communities of color, and can cross-list courses with Africana Studies. Application deadline: September 15, 2016.

University of California, San Francisco. The Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences (SBS) announces a search for a tenure track faculty position to be filled by September 1, 2017 (preferred, but later start date may be negotiable). Appointment will be at the Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor rank, depending upon the finalist's level of experience. Applicants are required to hold the PhD in sociology at the time of hire. Successful candidates should have expertise in medical sociology and quantitative research methods. Additional preferred areas of expertise include one or some combination of: sociology of aging, health policy, global health, HIV/AIDS, sociological theory, and/or organizational theory. For full consideration, applications should be submitted by September 15, 2016.

University of Nebraska-Lincoln. The Sociology Department and the Institute for Ethnic Studies (IES) at the invite applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position with a focus on Latina/o immigration, as part of a cluster hire, to begin August 2017. This position will have Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) apportionments of .60 Sociology and .40 Institute Ethnic Studies. Application deadline: September 30, 2016.

The University of Texas at San Antonio. The Department of Sociology at invites applications for an Assistant Professor in the areas of Demography/Health and Quantitative Methodology beginning Fall 2017. Application deadline: September 30, 2016.