

International Development Studies - Assistant Professor

Trent University

Location: Ontario

Date posted: 2014-02-11

The Department of International Development Studies at Trent University (<http://www.trentu.ca/ids>), an interdisciplinary undergraduate department, invites applications for a nine month limited term position at the assistant professor level. The position is subject to budgetary approval and will commence August 1, 2014.

We are seeking a candidate with expertise in the political economy of international development to offer courses in the following areas: global political economy; global civil society; urbanization; the cinema of international development; and introductory international development studies.

Candidates must have teaching experience and a Ph.D. in hand or near completion.

Applications will be welcomed from individuals with a background in international development studies, sociology, anthropology, geography, political studies or a related discipline.

Please send an electronic covering letter, a complete curriculum vitae, teaching evaluations and letters from three referees to: A. Haroon Akram-Lodhi, Chair of the Department of International Development Studies, Trent University, 1600 West Bank Drive, Peterborough, Ontario, K9J 7B8, Canada, email: haroonakramlodhi@trentu.ca; applicants should also cc Dana Gee, Administrative Assistant (danagee@trentu.ca).

Applications must be received by March 17, 2014.

Trent University is actively committed to creating a diverse and inclusive campus community and encourages applications from qualified candidates from the following groups: women, persons with disabilities, visible minorities, and Aboriginal persons.

In accordance with Canadian Immigration requirements, priority will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents.